

AssetWorld 2026 Terms and Conditions

We are so excited that you and your organization are considering joining us for AssetWorld 2026! To ensure the event's success for our attendees, we have terms and conditions to present you with before registration.

Overview

AssetWorld 2026 is a virtual user conference hosted by AssetWorks. These Terms and Conditions govern registration for and participation in the event.

By registering for AssetWorld 2026, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agree to be bound by these Terms and Conditions.

Registration & Access

Registration for AssetWorld 2026 grants access to the live virtual event for the registered individual only. Each attendee must register separately and use their own unique login credentials. Sharing access, credentials, or event materials with unregistered individuals is not permitted.

AssetWorld 2026 is a live virtual event. Sessions will take place on the dates and times published in the official event agenda. Unless explicitly stated otherwise, access is limited to the live event only.

AssetWorks reserves the right to monitor platform usage and attendance to ensure compliance with these terms.

Pricing & Payment

All prices are listed in U.S. Dollars (USD).

Payment must be received in full at the time of registration unless otherwise approved by AssetWorks. Registrations are not considered complete until payment has been successfully processed.

Credit Card Payments

Credit card payments are processed securely through Whova using Stripe. Any applicable processing or convenience fees charged by these providers are the responsibility of the registrant and are non-refundable. These fees are 3% of the registration fee + $0.99 per ticket.

Purchase Orders

If payment by purchase order is permitted, payment terms are Net 30 from the invoice date. AssetWorks reserves the right to revoke event access if payment is not received within the agreed payment period.

Cancellation & Refund Policy

Due to the nature of a virtual event and the immediate allocation of access and resources, all registrations are non-refundable once payment is received.

Substitutions may be permitted within the same organization for the current year's event only and must be requested in writing prior to the event. Substitution requests are subject to approval by AssetWorks.

Attendance & No-Show Policy

Registration does not guarantee attendance. AssetWorks is not responsible for a registrant's inability to attend due to scheduling conflicts, technical issues on the registrant's end, or other personal or professional circumstances.

Failure to attend the event, in whole or in part, does not constitute grounds for a refund or credit.

Event Changes

AssetWorks reserves the right to modify the event agenda, session content, speakers, format, or event platform as necessary. In the event of significant changes, registered attendees will be notified.

AssetWorks is not responsible for delays or disruptions caused by circumstances beyond its reasonable control, including but not limited to platform outages or third-party technical issues.

Code of Conduct

AssetWorld 2026 is a professional event intended to support learning, collaboration, and respectful discussion. Attendees are expected to engage in a professional and courteous manner with speakers, staff, and fellow participants.

AssetWorks reserves the right to remove any attendee from the event for disruptive, inappropriate, or unprofessional behavior, without refund.

Recording, Audio/Video, and Use of Content

AssetWorld 2026 sessions will be recorded. By registering for and participating in the event, you consent to the recording of your participation, including audio, video, chat messages, Q&A submissions, and other interactions.

AssetWorks may use this content for educational, promotional, internal, or related business purposes, including but not limited to websites, presentations, and marketing materials. No compensation will be provided for such use.

All recordings and related content remain the exclusive property of AssetWorks.

Event Platform & Third-Party Tools

AssetWorld 2026 utilizes third-party platforms, including Whova, to deliver the event experience. Use of these platforms is subject to their respective terms of service and privacy policies.

Whova's privacy policy can be found at: <https://whova.com/privacy/>

If you do not agree to these terms, you should not register for or participate in the event.

Acknowledgment & Consent

By completing registration for AssetWorld 2026, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agree to these Terms and Conditions.

Any summaries or excerpts presented during registration are provided for convenience only and do not replace the full Terms and Conditions outlined in this document.
